Raymond Culture Club Plans Annual Yule Pilgrimage

For the Annual Christmas Pilgrimage sponsored by the Raymond Culture Club one of the homes to be opened on the night of December 22nd from 8 to 9 will be that of the Club president, Mrs. T. T. Beemon and Mr. Beemon. This attractive home on Mimosa St. will wear a gay Yule decoration on the outside and inside. Mrs. Beemon plans to feature a dining room table, set and ready for the feast of the traditional turkey and all the trimmings. Not only will Mrs. Beemon's personality be reflected, but the efforts of her talented husband will be on display as the dancing reindeer and Santa with his sleigh pull away from the gift laden tree in their den.

With three youngsters, Bob, Bill and Beebee filled with the wonderment of the coming of Ole St. Nick, nothing could be more appropriate than the theme to be used by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Boteler at their home on Port Gibson Street. Dancing elves, prancing deer, tiny dolls and many characters of the Yule season will fill the house with delightful scenes for grown ups and children, who will all be peeping around each corner for the dear Jolly Fellow in the flet suit and long white whiskers.

Towering red candles pose the entrance way from Port Gibson Street to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stewart, a stately two story white house, tied with red as a magnificent Christmas package.

In the entrance hall the green carpeted stairs will be entwined with boughs of holly and red berries, and the same red will be used as a big candle in a clock case at the head of the stairs. The upstairs bedrooms will be individualized with appropriate decorations, carrying out harmonizing colors. Traditional red and green will be used in the living room and the den will feature a red draped table holding a punch bowl. The little ones of the family, Clarke and Paula have not been left out for a tree befitting their size is gayly trimmed and ready for Santa.

With young son, Mike in the family, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bearden's home on Palestine Street will be decorated with the young and the very young in heart in mind. Native greens and reds will predominate the arrangements being made by Mrs. Bearden. The gayly decorated tree is a family project and one that will have a special place to await the gifts that will be surreptitiously placed beneath it's sparkling limbs.

The tour ends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mashburn on Bolton Road, where the hostesses of the month, Mrs. George Barton, Mrs. J. D. O'Neal, Mrs. J. L. Shearer and Mrs. Jack Covington will serve refreshments.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Mashburn will be Club Vice-President Mrs. Gordon Williams and Mr. Williams, and Mrs. David Schubert of Crystal Springs, sister of Mrs. Mashburn.

Traditional red and green decorations will be used throughout the reception rooms with special emphasis on the centerpiece of the dining room table that will hold the party goodies and coffee service.

Assisting Mrs. Mashburn and the hostesses will be Gerry Williams, Lana Treloar, Waymon Covington, Nancy Smith, Marilyn Maxwell, Mary Adams, Byrle Kynerd and Annette Gibbes.

Mrs. Norwood Spann, Mrs. J. H. Adams and Mrs. Asa Luler are members of the arrangements committee.

Anyone interested in making the tour will be cordially welcomed by the Club members and by the hostesses of the homes on parade.

CHALLENGE TO MEMBERS

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in work and in deed. Let us be done with faultfinding and self-seeking. May we never be hasty in judgment and always be generous. May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity and without prejudice. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid. Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, gentle. Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are one. And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all, and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

Traditional red and green were used in the decorations throughout the house with touches of white and gold in the living room. Featured in the living room was the "snow" covered coffee table in which Santa drove his tiny reindeer hitched to a sleigh filled with miniature packages—a gift for each child who passed his way. Another conversation piece was the unique way in which a small Christmas tree glowing with red lights was used inside the glass closed portion of a small antique secretary. During the first half of the evening Mrs. Ligon Shearer presided over the coffee service and Mrs. A. T. Liddell poured tea. Later pouring coffee was Mrs. W. M. Moss and at the tea service was Mrs. O.
